Who is the Biggest Success Story of 2008?

SUCCESS Magazine Says ‘Cast Your Ballot’ for 2008 Achiever of the Year

Nominate Candidates at www.SUCCESS.com/achiever

Dallas, TX (December 10, 2008): SUCCESS magazine is on a search to find 2008’s most extraordinary achiever – an individual who has gone above and beyond outstanding success to the truly remarkable. SUCCESS magazine has issued an open call for nominations for the first annual SUCCESS Achiever of the Year Award. To nominate a candidate log on to www.success.com/achiever.

“SUCCESS magazine’s Achiever of the Year will be an individual who embodies the concept of ‘whole-life-success, a person with achievements in business, well-being, relationships and a spirit of giving back,’” said Darren Hardy, Publisher and Editorial Director, SUCCESS. “In a time of great challenge, finding success stories and recognizing achievers is more imperative than ever. The mission of our magazine is to find these special people so that more people will learn from them.”

The top five nominees will be posted in January at which point readers will be invited back to SUCCESS.com to cast their vote. The winner will be announced in late February, featured in the TK 2009 issue of SUCCESS and invited as an honored guest to the SUCCESS Symposium taking place in Dallas, TX on March 28, 2009.
